17 Defendant David Nosal, by and through his attorney, Steven F. Gruel, hereby requests that 18 his conditions of pretrial release be modified to permit travel to and from the Virgin Islands and 19 Europe on the following dates: Virgin Islands: January 23, 2012 to February 6, 2012 and 20 Europe: February 11, 2012 to February 17, 2012. This travel is business related.

22 On April 25, 2008, the Court authorized Mr. Nosal's pretrial release with the standard
23 conditions including a $50,000 unsecured bond, no travel restrictions within the United States
24 and that Mr. Nosal's passport be surrendered to his counsel. Defense counsel informed the Court that Mr. Nosal's employment requires international travel. The Court ordered that any request for international travel required notice to the government and the Court's authorization.

26 OF PRETRIAL CONDITIONS OF RELEASE TO PERMIT TRAVEL

The government does not oppose and stipulates to this defense request. Further, Paul Mameril of Pretrial Services has been contacted and does not object to this defense request. Upon his return to the United States, Mr. Nosal is to surrender his passport to his attorney for safekeeping until further order of the Court.
